

MANKIND IN GENERAL, AND THE CLERGY IN PARTICULAR,

WILL be greatly pleased, and highly gratified, by having an effectual and ready Means put into their Hands, of vindicating or defending RELIGION and CHRISTIANITY, from the violating, repelling and exterminating Opposition it hath hitherto experienced, or was in any Degree liable to suffer, through the Attacks of Mr. TOM PAINE, OR OTHERS LIKE HIM.——The more they feel themselves interested in this New Universal Means, the more they will feel it incumbent on them not only to subscribe, but also to diffuse the Intelligence.

Nothing but criminal Prejudice, superstitious Bigotry, invincible Ignorance, or wilful Obstinacy, can refuse Assent, or bar the Mind of Man from giving a hearty Concurrence to every Article contained in the whole Book!——It will be difficult to decide, whether the Simplicity, Evidence and Convictions of the Arguments, the Brevity of the Book, or the Reality of its Contents, are most to be admired.——Such an amazing Multitude of New and Original Matter, in so small a Compass, never arrested the Mind, excited the Curiosity, nor riveted the Attention of Mankind.

If ever the Powers of ASTONISHMENT, ALARM and DISMAY, were awfully and effectually blended, or ever had true Cause to be so, the Contents of this Book produce the greatest Instance possible!

In it the Force of Conviction from the clearest Evidence, in the simplest and sublimest Manner, is singularly united, and as strikingly displayed.

THE Work may be seen in Manuscript, before it goes to Press, at No. 26, GOLDEN-LANE, DUBLIN.

Where Subscriptions are chiefly Received, and all Subscribers regularly Registered in a Book for that Purpose.

Subscriptions finally close at Christmas Holidays, the Work goes to the Press on New Year's Day, and will be ready for Delivery about the first of February next, 1794.

N.B. The Price of the Work is 1s. 6d. — all in the Book — Being the first Edition — and the first time it has been published — OBSERVE THE CONDITIONS
